

Marcia Rensink

Bible Educator

Marcia Rensink is an enthusiastic Bible educator with over 30 years of experience teaching students from Kindergarten through 10th grade. She has spent the majority of her career helping young minds connect with God and deepen their understanding of His Word.

Marcia holds a BA from Northwestern College and a teaching credential from California, where she spent 19 years teaching. Additionally, she has pursued master's-level courses to further enhance her skills and knowledge. Passionate about breaking down complex life skills into simple, actionable steps, she emphasizes the importance of hearing God's voice and "abiding" with Him.

Throughout her career, Marcia has enjoyed directing musicals, exploring languages, and most importantly, inspiring her students in their spiritual journeys. Her passion for teaching the Bible remains at the heart of her work, and she is committed to helping her students grow in their faith and relationship with God.
