

Zdenka Alexa

Art Instructor

Zdenka Alexa is an experienced Art Instructor with a diverse background in education, photography, and ministry. She graduated from the Pedagogical School in the Czech Republic, where she trained as an elementary teacher specializing in art education, music, and physical education. Passionate about photography, Zdenka ran her own photography studio in the Czech Republic, where she honed her artistic vision and creativity.

In addition to her artistic endeavors, Zdenka holds a bachelor's degree in Mission and Bible Studies and has worked for many years in the SOZO Healing Ministry, helping individuals find spiritual restoration and healing. She is currently pursuing certification as an Art Therapy Practitioner to deepen her ability to guide others through the healing power of creativity.

Zdenka's connection to the Moravian heritage and the teachings of Jan Amos Comenius deeply influences her approach to education and ministry. She is dedicated to helping children discover their unique talents and guiding them in how to connect with God through creativity and art.
