

Mario J. Noviello, M.S. USAB

Athletic Director | Upper Science Instructor

Mario J. Noviello is a dedicated professional with a passion for education, sports, and wellness. Armed with degrees in Human Nutrition, Exercise Science, and Science, Mario brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to his role as Athletic Director and educator. A proud Veteran with a background in business ownership, he skillfully balances his career, teaching, and fatherhood.

Known for his authenticity, Mario connects with students through his no-nonsense approach while fostering a fun and engaging learning environment. Whether in the gym or classroom, Mario's classes are filled with real-world applications, humor, and a deep commitment to his students' growth and success. His genuine love for kids and his drive to make science and physical education both relevant and enjoyable set him apart as a truly impactful educator.