

Lora Rogers

School Receptionist | Choir Teacher

Lora Rogers is the dedicated school receptionist in the front office, known for her warm and welcoming presence. With an extensive background in customer service, Lora excels at setting a positive atmosphere and creating inviting spaces for both students and staff. Her friendly and approachable nature ensures that everyone feels valued, as she has a unique gift for meeting new people and making them feel at home.

In addition to her role in the front office, Lora is passionate about encouraging students and staff alike. She takes pride in fostering a positive, uplifting environment that supports both personal and professional growth. Lora also holds a degree in Vocal Performance from Furman

University, and she enjoys sharing her love of music with students, enriching their educational experience through choir.

Whether she's answering calls, assisting visitors, or sharing her musical talents, Lora's dedication to her school community is evident in everything she does.
