

Casey Bowden

Kindergarten Teacher

Casey Bowden is an enthusiastic kindergarten teacher with over five years of experience in fostering young learners' growth. Drawing on a background as a children's pastor and a Master's Degree in Theology, Casey's teaching approach focuses on nurturing both the academic and spiritual development of each child. Passionate about helping kids connect with God and learn to hear His voice, Casey works hard to create a warm, engaging classroom where children can thrive and develop their unique potential. Every day, Casey strives to make a positive impact on the hearts and minds of the next generation.
